

2007 DOD STANDARDIZATION CONFERENCE

MARCH 13–15, 2007

THE WESTIN ARLINGTON
GATEWAY
ARLINGTON, VA

IMPROVING DEFENSE CAPABILITIES—
A GOVERNMENT AND INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIP

THE 2007
DoD STANDARDIZATION
CONFERENCE
MARCH 13–15, 2007

The 2007 DoD Standardization Conference, “Improving Defense Capabilities—A Government and Industry Partnership” will feature a keynote speech by the Honorable Kenneth J. Krieg, USDAT&L.

Panel topics include:

- Standardization Executive Panels
- Parts Management
- Joint Standardization Boards
- Standardization in Support of the Warfighter
- International Standardization

Track sessions/tutorials include:

- DSP for Beginners
- ITAR/EARS
- The Berry Amendment
- RFID
- DSP Automation

Attendees can earn 4 continuous learning points (CLPs) for each full day of attendance.

To register for this conference and to obtain the latest information, visit www.sae.org/events/dsp.

To register by phone, please call

1-877-606-7323 (within the United States and Canada)

Registration fees for this 2½ day conference are as follows:

Pre-registration—$579

After February 23, 2007—$679

Administered by SAE International for the U.S. Department of Defense.